

Observations

Candidates will demonstrate they have had the opportunity to observe other educators. These opportunities to observe and reflect on other teachers will be significant in number, depth, breadth, and duration. They are progressively more complex and allow the candidate the opportunity to observe progressively more complex teaching situations including working with all types of students.

Observations
Date	Subject	Reflection: What were you able to observe: what would you implement in your classroom, what would you do differently, how will this impact your teaching?