About iTutor.com

iTutor.com is an AdvancED accredited Digital Learning Institute, and a proven instructional service that is dedicated to serving K-12 schools. Over the past 7 years we are proud to have earned the trust of more than 600 school districts nationwide, and received a favorable evaluation by Johns Hopkins School of Education in a voluntary Instructional Design Review.. Our model provides schools and education institutions with a cloud-based technology solution to enhance their offerings and drive positive student outcomes through personalized online instruction led by our network of highly qualified State-certified Educators. Our platform features a secure iLMS, two way audio and video enabled virtual classroom and interactive whiteboard. Our Virtual Academy allows schools to use their teachers and their curriculum to deliver effective instruction to their students seamlessly in a secure online learning environment.

During these challenging times we realize that schools wish to keep their teachers connected with their students. Therefore, we also offer The iTutor Virtual Academy, This academy allows schools to use their teachers and their curriculum to deliver effective instruction to their students seamlessly in a secure online learning environment.
