Reading: HEALTH value of the month: Environmental Stewardship

We know our choices have consequences. We conduct every interaction honestly. We set intention. We commit to act. We reflect on growth and the impact of our decisions. We safeguard the environment and create positive change within our communities. Our commitment to the greater good transcends personal concerns. Our work has value. We are grateful.

Meeting Objective: To discuss upcoming events & immediate volunteer needs.

Agenda Items:

1. Fun Run- Thursday Oct. 28!!

- a. Thank you, Thank you, Thank you to all of you who sponsored or helped find sponsors for our Fun Run!!!
- b. Registration for Fun Run will open THIS WEEK on Wednesday! You can even start pledging this week, too! Keep an eye out for that email coming to you!
- c. Kick-off is on Oct. 20
- d. Volunteers needed mornings of Oct 22, 25, 26, 27 and ALL day on Oct 28. Please email me klyon@greenwoodcharter.org

2. TerraCycle Program (during our meetings, we had a guest speaker and grandma of a student here at the school, come to talk to us at

- a. In the bins in front of the school, to the East of our front doors, we are recycling the following items:
 - i. Arm & Hammer brand packages
 - ii. Colgate brand packages
 - iii. GoGo Squeeze brand packages

- iv. Kroger brand flexible packages (ex. Frozen fruit/veggie bags, bacon packages, cereal bags, etc)
- v. Personal Care & Beauty packages (any brand. Lotion, shampoo, conditioner bottles, etc.)

*We have to collect 18 pounds of each of these items before we can send them in to TerraCycle. Your kids are focusing on the HEALTH value of Environmental Stewardship this month, so this is a great time to commit or re-commit to recycling, and help our school out at the same time! Thank you for all of your help and participation!

*We plan to post on our school website FCO page more info about TerraCycle and how our school is supporting this amazing program, and how our students are getting involved! Stay posted!
