Journal for Nonprofit Innovation

By Dr. Angie Holzer

As we launch the first volume of our publication, we want to bring the world articles from the forward thinking thought leaders in the nonprofit sector. We are working hard to provide a place where new ideas can be discussed to solve community and global issues.

Article Submissions are currently open for our first volume of Journal for Nonprofit Innovation. Due date will be January 15, 2022. You can submit your 2-4 page article, not counting your references to angie@wikicharities.org. Any questions can also be sent to the same address.
